

A CHILD BORN IN BETHLEHEM

James I. Morgan

1. A child born in Beth - le - hem, a long time a - go,
 2. A star shines from Beth - le - hem, to light up our way.
 3. The Word comes from Beth - le - hem, for us to re - lay.

4 brings hope for a bet - ter land, and peace that will grow.
 It glows with ma - jes - tic hue, to bright - en each day.
 4 It warms ev - ery hu - man heart, a plea - sure to say.

8 De - liv - ers us all from sin, gives strength when we're down.
 Pro - vides us a life of joy, and love that is true.
 8 E - motes us with com - fort dear, and grace to im - bue.

12 O come let him en - ter in, and put on his crown.
 O let us re - flect on it, in all that we do.
 12 O let us be - lieve in it, our faith to re - new.
