

ALL THE BLADES IN THE FIELD

From poem by Henry Thoreau

James I. Morgan

All the blades in the fields, all the leaves in the trees,

4

4 have a place in God's mas - ter plan.

8

8 All the per - sons on earth, all the crea - tures of worth,

12

12 have a time and a place to show love.

ALL THE BLADES IN THE FIELD

15

15

But there then comes a time, when our God makes his call,

Detailed description: This block contains the first system of music, measures 15 through 18. It features a treble and bass staff in a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The melody in the treble staff consists of eighth and quarter notes, while the bass staff provides a simple accompaniment of quarter notes. The lyrics are: "But there then comes a time, when our God makes his call,".

19

19

and our life be - comes all too short.

Detailed description: This block contains the second system of music, measures 19 through 22. The treble staff continues the melody with quarter and eighth notes, ending with a fermata. The bass staff continues with quarter notes. The lyrics are: "and our life be - comes all too short.".

23

23

We have served our God well, we have loved and brought joy,

Detailed description: This block contains the third system of music, measures 23 through 26. The treble staff features a melody of quarter and eighth notes. The bass staff has a steady accompaniment of quarter notes. The lyrics are: "We have served our God well, we have loved and brought joy,".

27

27

and its time to go home to our rest.

Detailed description: This block contains the fourth system of music, measures 27 through 30. The treble staff concludes the melody with quarter and eighth notes. The bass staff continues with quarter notes. The lyrics are: "and its time to go home to our rest.".