

COMPLETELY ROUND

John Van Peenen

James I. Morgan

1. Com - plete - ly round is the per - fect pearl
 2. Com - plete - ly square was the vel - vet box
 3. Rec - tan - gu - lar was the ho - tel door
 4. Tri - an - gu - lar is the piece of pie

6 the oy - ster man - u - fac - - tures.
 he said my ring would be in.
 my true love tried to sneak through.
 6 I eat to ease my sor - - - row.

11 Com - plete - ly round is the steer - ing wheel
 Com - plete - ly square was the en - ve - lope 11 Rec - tan - gu - lar was the tran - som which Tri - an - gu - lar is the hat - chet blade

17 that leads to com - pound frac - - - tures.
 he said fare - well to me in.
 I had to reach to peek through.
 17 I plan to hide to - mor - - - row.

COMPLETELY ROUND

that hangs from the orange tree.
 I flour - ish con - stant - ly.
 27 I en - tered an - gri - ly.
 which now has ceased to be.

31

Yes, the cir - cu - lar shape is quite re - nowned
 as it wipes my eyes of tears I've shed
 31 And rec - tan - gu - lar is the wood - en box
 And tri - an - gu - lar is the gar - ment thin

and sad to say it can be found and blows my nose 'till it turns red.
 36 where lies my love with 'neath gold - en phlox.
 which fas - tens with a safe - ty pin

COMPLETELY ROUND

in that low-down dir - ty run - a - round
Com - plete - ly square my true love's head.
They say he died of the chick-en pox.
to a prize I had no wish to win.

my true love gave to me.
He will not marry me.
In part I must agree.
A last - ing mem - o - ry.

My true love gave to me.
He will not marry me.
One chick too many had.
my true love gave to me.
