

THE ANIMALS OF DOWN UNDER

James I. Morgan

1. Say a how - dy do to the kan - ga - roo, and a grand g' day to the cock - a - too.

Chorus

Ev - ery step of the way, have some - thing to say to the an - i - mals of down un - der.

2. Sing a lul-la-by to the ki-wi shy, and the state-ly shag soar-ing in the sky. (repeat chorus)
3. Send a smart sa-lute to the koal-a cute, and the bugs that skoot on the bam-boo shoot.
4. Give a greet-ing fair to that wom-bat there, and the bab-bler rare fly-ing in the air.
5. Say a oh by gee to the wal-le-by, and a how's it be to the ta-ka-he.
6. Voice a friend-ly boo to the tall e-mu, and a bill and coo to the pen-quin too.
7. Sing a da dee da to the e-chid-na. Let the gra-zing sheep hear your baa baa baa.
8. Say a fid-dle dee to the slick bil-by, and the fish-es free swim-ming in the sea.
9. Fake a flirt-y buss to the pla-ta-pus, and the coy koo-ka-bur-ra in the bush.
10. Wave a heart-y hi to the ke-a spry, and the fur-ry seals bask-ing on the sly.
11. Say a oh by gosh to the al-ba-tross, and the crea-tures cross ly-ing in the moss.
12. Give a curt-sy wink to the blue-tailed skink, and the ga-lah pink sit-ting on the brink.
13. Spout a mon-o-logue to the squeak-y frog, and the wee tu-a-ter-a in the bog.
14. Say a warm hel-lo to the ka-ka-po, and a how's it go to the pu-ke-ko.
15. Doff your wide rim hat to the long-tailed bat. With the dingo's gnat, have a lit-tle chat.
16. Stomp your feet in beat to the lor-a-keet. Clap your hands in time to this blood-y rhyme.
