

WHEN WE CALL EACH NEIGHBOR, BROTHER

James I. Morgan

1. When we call each neigh-bor, broth-er, tak - ing pride he is a friend.
 2. When we work as one big fam - ily, each a sis - ter to a cause,
 3. When all peo - ple love each oth - er, and God's will is all su - preme,
 4. When we look up - on each neigh-bor, as a friend whom we can trust,
 5. When we care for one - a - noth - er, let - ting wound and ha - tred heal,

4
 When we know a true com - mun - ion, with a love that has no end.
 then we'll live with pride and hon - or, stop - ping sel - dom for a pause.
 then we'll know a true con - ten - ment, and a - ttain our fond - est dream.
 then we'll bask in a grand glor - y, when each deed is right and just.
 4 then we'll find a peace and com - fort, and God's bless - ing we will feel.

9
 A world of light where hope reigns true, where jus - tice springs from each fresh dew.

9

17

where right- eous - ness is ev - ery - where, and there is peace and joy to share.

17

